

When the Fascists Came to Town

Charlottesville and the Rise of the Alt-Right

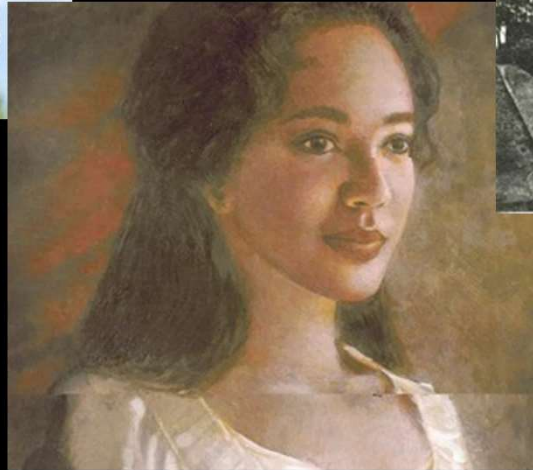

Charlottesville

Charlottesville's History (v. 1)

Charlottesville's History (v. 2)

Slavery in Charlottesville/Albemarle

Jim Crow in Charlottesville

COLORED BRUTE LYNCHED.

Charlottesville, Va., July 13.—John Henry James, a negro, criminally assaulted Miss Julia Hotopp on a public road near her home Monday and was lynched Tuesday two miles west of the city by an armed posse of 200 men.

Iowa County Democrat (Wisconsin),
July 17, 1898.

THEY LYNCHED HIM.

A Colored Man Dealt With---Taken From the Train.

DIED PROTESTING INNO-CENCE..

A Brutal Murder--Mob Makes
No Efforts at Disguise.

THE LAW DEFIED—ANARCHY IN VIRGINIA.

Richmond Planet,
July 16, 1898.

KKK in Charlottesville

Vinegar Hill

Vinegar Hill

The Memorials (Slavery)

The Memorials (Confederacy)

Lewis, Clark, Sacagawea

The Random Row Mural

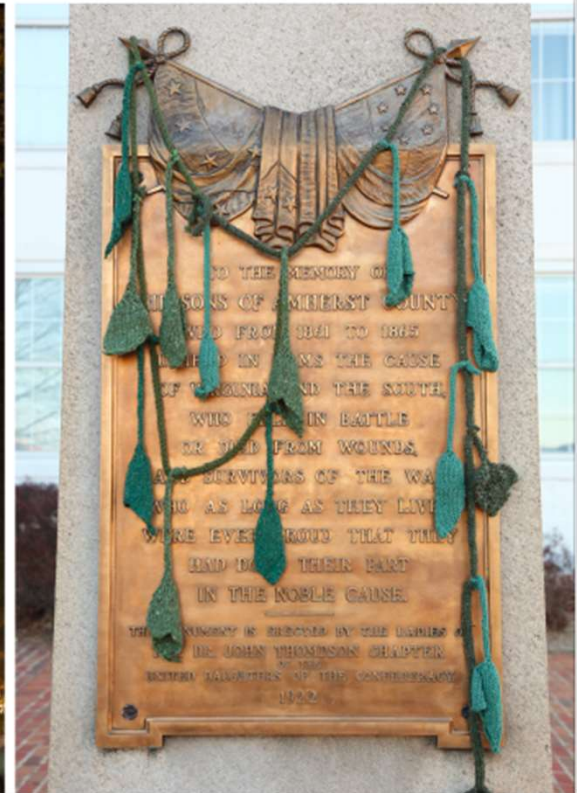

The Hidden Memorials

The New Memorials

The Guerrilla Memorials

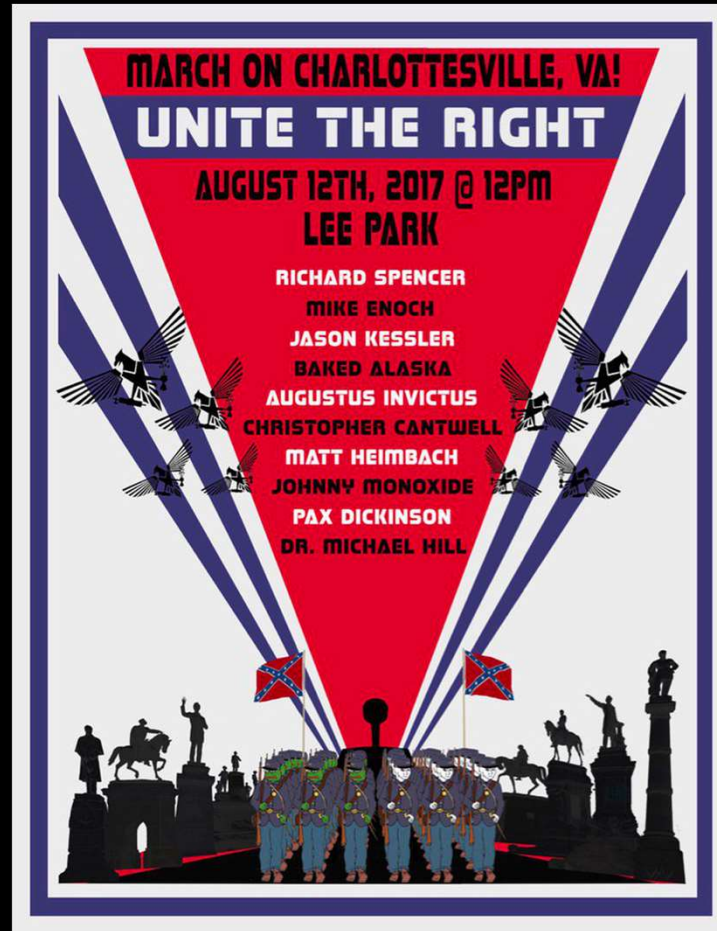

Jason Kessler and Confederate Statues

The Summer of Hate

“Unite the Right”

Anti-Racist Organizing

“Unite the Right”

Reframing the Conversation

White supremacy vs. anti-racism

OR

Free speech vs. censorship

We replaced you.

